Chapter 1 by MING WONG

It was 5:00 pm in Reno Nevada. Where a boy named Jack and his dad were planning a trip to go to Sacramento Ca to see his grandma & grandpa and cousins. Their train was supposed to leave at 1:00 am. So Jack's dad said "go to bed we have to wake up really early to catch the train" and Jack went to bed. The next morning at 11:30 when they were supposed to get up. But of course Jack was still asleep. Jack woke up "said his dad but Jack just turned over on his side. An hour had passed and Jack finally woke up but there was only 30 minutes until the train left so they got in their car and drove off. But before they got there they stopped and got breakfast to go at Golden Arches (also known as McDonalds). Then they got to the train station and the train had started to leave. "Darn" said his dad and went into the station to talk with Amtrak. They said that they could get on a bus that would take them to Las Vegas to catch a train and he said "deal". So they got their tickets and waited and waited.
